

HOW TO BECOME A FISHING FLEA SELLER, STEP BY STEP!

- 1) First you must register as a Fishing Flea member. If you are already a member, go to Step 2. Otherwise, on the left hand side of any Fishing Flea web page, click on the “Membership” button. On the “Members” page in the upper right hand corner click on “Become a Fishing Flea Member” and follow the step by step wizard to register as a Fishing Flea member. You will need to provide some basic information such as the state and country where you live, a unique user name and password, and a valid email address. After you have completed the wizard you will be sent an email which will have a link that will reconnect you to www.FishingFlea.com and automatically completes your registration. After your email arrives, click on this link and when you arrive back at Fishing Flea, log in using your user name and password.

- 2) After your registration as a Fishing Flea member is complete and you have logged in using your user name and password, click on the “Sellers” link on the left hand side of any Fishing Flea web page. This opens the “Sellers Page”. In the upper right hand corner of the web page, click on the “Become a Fishing Flea Seller” button. This will open a wizard that will lead you step by step to registering as a seller. On the first page of the wizard you will be informed as to all the things you will need during this process:
  - You will need the billing address of the credit or bank card, which you will use to pay any selling fees. Please use the name as it appears on the credit or bank card and the address as it appears on your credit card statement when entering your billing information.

  - You will be asked for answers to 3 questions that will be used to secure your later access to your credit or bank card info. This is an extra Fishing Flea security feature to protect your personal information. So write these answers down and store them in a secure place for later use.

  - You will need the credit or bank card which you will use for billing in hand to provide all of its information.

- You will need a personal check on the bank account to which you want all the proceeds from your sales to be deposited electronically.

  - You may provide up to three alias user names under you may sell items on Fishing Flea.

  - You will need to provide the address where you desire any return shipment or pickups of sold items to be shipped or picked up.
- 3) The next wizard page is where you must agree to the terms of the Seller Agreement. Read these terms then click the Checkbox showing that you agree to the terms, and then click “Next”.

  - 4) On the next wizard page provide your Credit Card Billing information. At this point let me inform you that Fishing Flea is one of the most secure websites on the Web. Not only does it use all the same security practices used by online banking services, we have taken it a step farther by using our own Torqued Solutions Database to store your information. This database was designed using the most secure encryption algorithm there is. There are encryptions that used this algorithm that been unsolved for hundred of years. After completing this form for your billing address, click on “Next”.

  - 5) The next wizard page will ask you to select three questions and provide answer to those questions. You will be required to answer one of more of these question to gain access to your credit card and banking data if you decide to edit them at a later date. So store these questions and answers in secure place for future reference. After answering the questions, click “Next”.

  - 6) On the next page of the wizard, fill in your Credit Card information for the card that you want any sellers fees charged to, then click “Next”.

  - 7) The next page of the wizard will require you to provide your bank’s name, the account number, and the routing number for the account that you want the money from any sales deposited electronically. If you do not want to provide a bank account for your sales to be deposited electronically, contact us for arrangements for mailing you your funds manually. But be informed that manually mailing of funds will require that a processing fee be deducted from your sale’s funds.

- 8) The next page allows you to list up to three alias user names under which you may list items for sale. This step is optional and can be completed at a later time if you desire.
- 9) The last step is to provide us with your shipping address from which your items that you list for sale on Fishing Flea will be shipped from. If this address is the same as your billing address then check the box stating so, otherwise fill in the form and click "Next".
- 10) On the final page of the wizard, click "Finish" and that will complete your registration as a Fishing Flea Seller. You may check the box before clicking "Finish" and go directly to the wizard that will list your item for sale.
